

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF VIRGINIA
ALEXANDRIA DIVISION

In the Matter of:

Tiffany Bestani

Case No. 16-12768-BFK

Debtor

Chapter 7

ORDER GRANTING MOTION TO COMPEL ABANDONMENT

This matter came before the Court on December 5, 2017, on Debtor's Motion to Compel Abandonment of her pending lawsuit in the State of California. Present before the Court were debtor, debtor's counsel and counsel for the chapter 7 trustee. Arguments were heard and evidence was presented, and the Court finds as follows:

1. On Schedule A/B of the Debtor's bankruptcy petition, the Debtor included as an asset "Possible lawsuit that has not been pursued against former employer three years ago" ("Potential Litigation").
2. At the meeting of creditors held on September 26, 2016, the Debtor described the Potential Litigation as a claim for unpaid wages totaling approximately $12,000.00.
3. The Debtor did not disclose in her schedules an interest in any domain names.

For the reasons stated from the bench it is:

ADJUDGED, ORDERED and DECREED as follows:

1. The Potential Litigation that the Debtor included in Schedule A/B of her bankruptcy petition not related to the operation of domain names is deemed abandoned by the chapter 7 trustee.
2. Any portion of litigation initiated by the Debtor in state court that is related to or involves domain names has not been abandoned by the chapter 7 trustee and remains property of the Debtor's bankruptcy estate.
